“ Sonnets are full of love, and this my tome
Has many sonnets: so here now shall be
One sonnet more, a love sonnet, from me
To her whose heart is my heart's quiet home,
To my first Love, my Mother, on whose knee
I learnt love-lore that is not troublesome;
Whose service is my special dignity,
And she my loadstar while I go and come
And so because you love me, and because
I love you, Mother, I have woven a wreath
Of rhymes wherewith to crown your honoured name:
In you not fourscore years can dim the flame
Of love, whose blessed glow transcends the laws
Of time and change and mortal life and death.

This is a beautiful and blessed tribute to a great friend whose quiet strength was such an inspiration to me. We will miss you, Vicki, until we all will meet again in that beautiful heaven the Lord has gone before to prepare a place for us. To all our family, I, Grandma, and the rest of our family send our love, comfort and strength. Please stay in touch. Due to my physical limitations I cannot be there in person but will always will be there in spirit and in love. May God bless you

Vickie was such a dear person. I will remember all the fun times we had together at the FOE3187.
