“ A unique and special person. Also had many summers at the farm chopping cotton and bailing hay. Loved riding in the Chevy. Vic always had to open up the cut-outs when we heading for downtown. don't tell anyone but I believe it was Vic that gave me my 1st beer. Yes sir, I think it is ok to tell now. Had a wonderful time the summer of 1964. Spent the summer traveling in a converted 1952 school bus with Vic, Steve and Hamill family. Vic just graduated High School and heading to Abilene Christian College Traveled to Yellowstone and everything in between Thanks for the great memories my friend. You fought the battle courageously . I will still be lookin up to ya.....

“ So sorry and saddened to hear about Vic's passing. I spent two summers picking cotton in the hot sun, mowing hay and baling hay with Vic. Hard work but we had a lot of fun especially some things not to be mentioned here. We had some good times in his awesome 56 Chevy.
God Bless Him!

“ I only met Vic at an upward basketball game in Carlsbad that Parker and his friends were playing. Chris and Clay Richardson were coaching the team. I just happened to be sitting with him and we struck up a conversation. He asked me who I was there to watch play. I told him Saul and Parker, and that both of the coaches were my friends. That's when he told me who he was. Just in those few minutes I knew he was a special man. My deepest condolences to his wife, Chris, and his family and friends. Losing a parent is a tough thing. 🙏🙏🙏🌹🌹🌹🙏🙏🙏
