“ Brother Molina, Beto & Family My deepest condolences to each one of you during our loss of your wife & mother, Virgie, she was a special person that will be missed tremendously by us all. She always had a special way of explaining things and was fun to be around when she was feeling well. I will miss her laughter, but most of all her friendship, she was not only my best-friend but my dear sister, whom we all loved very much and miss every day. May Jehovah give each of you and us the strength to go on & be able to greet her in paradise, I'm here for you all as I was there for her, With love, Liz

“ Thank you all for your posts and support in our time of need. You don't know how much this means to us. If only my mom could have seen how many people were there that day, I know it would have touched her heart in a positive way to see how many of you still cared for her...Mom...I will always remember you and you will always be in my heart. I will think of you everyday that I wake up and thank Jehovah for the wonderful mother, father, sister, wife, daughter, family, and friends he gave me. Life will go on but will be hard to know that you will not be there to experience it with us. Rest well like you always wanted and see you in the new paradise. Love, Your Son, Beto
