

Wanda Rowland

March 23, 1930 - November 29, 2020

Obituary for Wanda "Prince" Rowland

Wanda Revonne Rowland went to Heaven on Sunday, November 29, 2020, from COVID complications. Please take a moment and share a fond memory or kind expression of sympathy for Wanda's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

On March 23, 1930, Wanda was born to W.L. Prince and Mamie Graham in Eldorado, Oklahoma. She had a heart of gold. Her favorite song was "Don't step on my blue suede shoes" and loved Christian music. Wanda would always tell me she would "spank me pretty" if I would say a bad word. I will never forget that!!! At least she isn't suffering anymore. Heaven gained another angel. Wanda will be missed by all. Rest in Peace, my sweet aunt. I love you to the moon and back.

Wanda was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Irish Rowland; father, W.L. Prince; mother, Mamie Prince; sisters: Patricia Pugh, Irene Renfro, Evalea Lovison and Meryl Prince; brothers: Don Prince, Erdmon Prince and J.W. Prince.

Those left to cherish Wanda's memory her son, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Wilson; daughter, Judy Lynn Cox and husband Jerry, niece, Donna Jean Gutierrez and husband Michael; nephew, Kevin Prince; numerous nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

Wanda's tribute was written by her niece, Donna Jean "Prince" Gutierrez.

Tribute Wall

“ Wanda Rowland

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ Our condolences to her family. Ms. Wanda was a beautiful, kind and loving woman...we met her years ago at her favorite place to eat (sonic), she called my daughters her granddaughters and they knew her as "Grandma Wanda" 😭💔

Tina Galindo - December 10, 2020 at 07:50 PM

Rest in peace my beautiful friend knew her and her husband for years loved her so much my is broken into pieces finding out about her passing. God bless her family

Rose marie Frias - December 10, 2020 at 07:57 PM