“ Dear Barbara and family, It is with great sorrow that write this note. We always enjoyed a visit with you and Bill--talking about the good, bad and funny times and always telling stories about the old times. Bill will certainly be missed. I'm sure there is no other person like him. Because of my knee problems I can't attend the memorial and am sad for it. Somehow, this rainy day seems kind of appropriate as we mourn his passing. This brings to mind a simple song by Roger Miller called "One dy'n and a buryin" It is beautiful in its own way-- Think Bill would like it. My best wishes, love and condolences. Your friend, Jane

“ Barb, Shawn, Coy and Family Please know of our sadness learning of Bill's passing.
Please know Bill and your family and friends are in my thoughts and prayers during this time of bereavement.
Although it has been some time since seeing Bill, his gentle smile, laugh and long friendship provide fond memories.
You will have many fine and fond memories to cherish forever of your beloved husband, father and family patriarch. Bill was fortunate and blessed to have a life with a loving family and friends. With kind regards, Respectfully, Tom Jennings
