“ Dear Dr. Liakos, I want to thank you for all of the great times at your house throughout the years. Luckily Sambo the Lhasa Apso didn't eat us all who would run wild through the house.

Our Wednesdays going skiing were also lots of fun, and we all stayed together for the day, a complete blast. Time at the ranch was also very much fun, even taking the shock from the electric fence to get "in the club".

On top of all of the fun we had, you were also a fantastic Doctor not only to me, but my sister's children as well.

Roswell has lost one of it's gems, but good news, Billy appears to be fully capable of carrying on your legacy.

Godspeed to Kee and Billy's families, Brian McCoy.

“ Kay and family may Dr Liakos rest in peace. He was my children's Dr when they were little and I really liked him. I never saw him angry or frustrated. What a nice characteristic to have.
