Obituary for William John Martin

William John Martin 9/10/2008 – 11/22/2008 his time on earth.

I hope you will except Jesus as your Savior! I will tell you about him. He is sinless. He has never sinned. Sin is bad stuff. He lived like us, except he did not sin. He died for you and me. He died in one of the most hurtful ways. But he rose from the dead. And you can be sinless for a time, and be sinful again. But you can only be sinless if you ask Jesus to forgive you. Written by: Sarah Nicole Martin

God Blessed us with the most precious angel on Sept. 10, 2008. Although his life was short, the light of his life touched so many people in so many ways. Only God knows why he was here for such a short time. We are so happy to have been blessed with the sweet spirit of William John Martin.

Even though we don't get to hold him, we will hold him in our hearts every minute of everyday. Baby John our little "P.J." filled our hearts with such joy. He was such a happy baby, loved to be held and loved to smile all the time, which in return made everyone else smile. He might have been little but he thought big. He loved his sisters so much. Every morning he would greet us with a big smile. He gave his sisters such joy and happiness when they held and kissed him. He was loved by so many when he was here and even more now that he has gone. We will miss holding him so much, but we are comforted knowing he is in heaven with the Lord and Father Jesus Christ. His presence is as a ripple in a pond that will continue to spread and touch many souls.

William John Martin was born to William Matthew Martin and Brooke Lynette Metcalf he is survived by his parents, his sisters; Sarah Nicole Martin, Hannah Marie Martin, Emily Faith Martin, paternal grandmother, Lana Snell "Nana", great grandparents, Jim and Melba Snell, maternal grandparents, Forest and Nelda Metcalf, great grandparents, W.J. and Joyce George, great grandmother, Nancy Metcalf, many aunts and uncles, Elizabeth Rose, Toby Joseph Wright, Tres and Deborah Spencer, Jamie Martin, Heath Metcalf, Crystal Faulhaber, first cousins, Faith Lee Ann Spencer, Weston and Riata Faulhaber and numerous other great aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ My condolences on the loss of your precious Son. He was pure and without sin! He automatically returned to Heavenly Father and his son Jesus Christ. Your son did not need to go through the trails of life. All he needed was a body to return to Our Heavly Father. I know it is hard and there are organizations and email groups to help.

“ I know that you do not know me, but upon reading about your dear little ones passing, I just had to let you know that you are in my families prayers. We recently lost our Mom and I know how that pain is, I can not imagine the pain of losing a baby. Take comfort like we do that he is dancing with the angels and sitting in Jesus's lap and feeling no pain or sorrow. the tardiff family “ Brooke & Matt Oh, how my heart goes out to you and your family. No matter how old they are; we always miss them. What a sweet looking baby, so happy. I know you will miss him. Keep your faith; the Lord has a plan. Hold on to each other. Talk about him and the hurt you feel with one another. Don't keep it bottled up inside--you will need each other more than ever now. Love each other, love your girls, and most of all keep your faith in the Lord. He will carry you through. You have great memories of William John; Don't let your sadness overshadow the presence of those memories. Our sympathy and love is with you.

Nelda and Forrest, Roy and I are praying for you and your family.
Love to all, Roy and Johnanna Rush

“ Brooke, I haven't seen or heard from you in years since Sarah was a little girl and you were living in Cloudcroft. I heard about your loss from my grandmother, Juanita Campbell.
I want to tell you how sorry I am for you and your family. You are in our prayers.
