Xavier Isaiah Lujan was born July 23, 2002, in Roswell, NM, to Eva Lujan. He attended schools in Roswell and was a member of RYFL, Mustang, and Coyote football. His number one priority and passion was his son. He became a father on January 5, 2024, when he and Kilee Ridge welcomed their son Amaziah Isaiah Lujan. His son was his whole world. Xavier learned many trades in his life and was a current employee as a Noltec operator at Leprino Foods at the time of his passing. He loved working with his hands, fishing, riding, and working on his bike. He enjoyed eating home-cooked meals and watching Rams Football, WWE, and Batman movies. He was a clown and a fighter. Ready for anything and scared to miss out on everything. A loving father, son, brother, grandson, nephew, and friend.

Those left to cherish his memory are his son, Amaziah Lujan; the mother of his son and friend, Kilee Ridge; mother, Eva Lujan; grandparents: John and Bertha Lujan; sisters: Marissa Gomez and partner Robert Madrid, Danielle

Orosco, Nina Orosco, and Selena Orosco; brother, Remy Orosco; the man who raised him and he called dad, Daniel Orosco; Tio's: Nicholas Analla and Tia Stephanie Analla, Tio John Joseph Lujan, tio Zachary Lujan fiancée Lisa Dunlap; Along with many other great Tio's, Tia's, and cousins.

Xavier was preceded in death by his Tio Joseph Orosco; close family member, Tessamarie Karma Anderson; as well as many friends and family members.

Special mention to the Orosco boys, JD, Gage, Eli, and Santos; and to his biker friends that stayed with him to the end.

Losing Xavier is the greatest tragedy of our lives. His big eyes, his smile, and his laugh are already missed. He lived every day to the fullest and with the biggest smile. He was our protector as much as our problem, but we loved him anyway. We will hold him in our hearts for the rest of our lives.
